Story

Advances in radar technology have made stealth fighter a normal fighter plane.

Willsword country developed the latest fighter XF-98.

It is a fighter with high attack power and phenomenal durability.

Due to the MD armor equipped with this fighter aircraft, radar performance has declined greatly.
MD armor is an armor that weakens enemy missiles by irradiating missiles with high power laser and EMP.
The Willsword country further evolved XF - 98 and completed "XF-99 Artemis".
This aircraft became the ultimate invincible fighter.
And feared as "Fortress in the air" from pilots of the Maxell federation.
